

KEYS TO LEADERSHIP

Girl Scout Conference on Inclusion & Leadership
"The Power of Perspective"

Saturday, March 8, 2014 • 10 am—5 pm
American University • Washington, DC

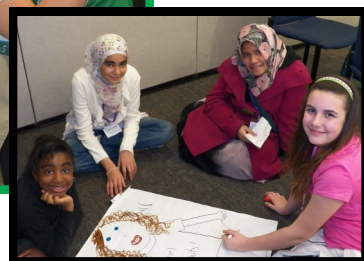

LEARN ANSWERS TO THESE QUESTIONS AND MANY MORE:

- How can I be the best version of myself?
- How can I be an effective leader?
- How can I include diverse audiences in things that I care about?
- What can I learn from others' perspectives about me?
- How can I be a better friend and leader to those who may seem different from me?
- What career and extracurricular opportunities are out there that I've never considered?

Introducing an "Advanced Leadership" track for conference-goers who've attended Keys to Leadership TWO TIMES or more or who are high school juniors or seniors!

FOR MORE INFORMATION,

Andraea LaVant
Inclusion Specialist
202-534-3791
alavant@gscnc.org

WHO:

- Middle and high school girls of ALL abilities (includes grade 5)
- Non-Girl Scouts who live in West Virginia, Virginia, Maryland, and Washington, DC
- Girls who desire to be great leaders!

WHAT:

- An inclusive convening of young and emerging leaders of ALL abilities
- Includes an engaging, exciting day filled with fun-filled, thought-provoking workshops and activities
- Workshops led by dynamic community leaders and change agents

WHY:

To provide an experience to help girls identify three "keys" to leadership:

- Discover their own potential.
- Connect with successful role models.
- Take Action with renewed self-esteem and skills to become leaders in the world.

COST: FREE!!!

Registration deadline: FEBRUARY 28, 2014
*(Registration includes lunch, snack, and conference materials)

Register at:

www.surveymonkey.com/s/KTL2014