JOIN UNITED CEREBRAL PALSY (UCP) AND STUDENT VETERANS OF AMERICA (SVA) for “Engage: A Diverse Event Series.” The events will be open to youth and young adults with disabilities from ages 14-26 and veterans under the age of 35 to learn about financial management, adaptive sports and disability and military history while enjoying food and beverages and valuable networking time.

September 24
6:00-8:00 p.m.
National Youth Transitions Center, 2013 H Street NW
Share your challenges with optimizing financial resources with financial planning experts including representatives from TD Bank, who will offer advice and guidance through budgeting activities.

October 21
6:00-8:00 p.m.
National Youth Transitions Center, 2013 H Street NW
Learn about adaptive sports with representatives from Disabled Sports USA who will share their stories, answer questions and demonstrate equipment.

November 18
1:00-3:00 p.m.
American History Museum, 14th & Constitution Avenue, NW
Hear from the staff of the Division of Armed Forces History and the Division of Science and Medicine at the Smithsonian Institution Accessibility plus behind-the-scenes tours of military and disability history.

December 10
6:00 – 8:00 p.m.
National Youth Transitions Center, 2013 H Street NW
Enjoy a networking reception filled with food, beverages and music!

Events are FREE but space is limited, so registration is required.

“Transitions in life, such as from school to young adulthood, can be rocky for people with disabilities,” said Stephen Bennett, UCP’s President and CEO. “They face many of the same challenges as veterans who are returning to civilian life.”

QUESTIONS?
Contact O’Ryan Case at 202-973-7125 or ocase@ucp.org.