

I am a Veteran. I am an entrepreneur.

Military Veterans are committed to excellence, driven by passion, and focused on success. These same values are critical to running a business. Whether you're just starting out with an idea or looking to grow your current company, being an entrepreneur can be an exciting and challenging journey. That's why there is Kauffman FastTrac.

FastTrac offers two unique, group-oriented courses designed to help Veterans launch or grow businesses by providing essential frameworks, strategies and insights along with a reliable support network of leaders and peers.

FastTrac Courses for Veterans

FastTrac courses for Veterans will help you use your unique skills to:

- ▶ Transition to a post-military career through entrepreneurship.
- ▶ Utilize the skills gained through military service to build a cohesive business platform.
- ▶ Leverage leadership skills.

FastTrac® NewVenture™:

For entrepreneurs who have an idea for a business, but need a plan and framework for successfully starting a company.

- ▶ Develop your business concept.
- ▶ Determine the viability of your idea.
- ▶ Outline the critical steps to a successful business launch.

FastTrac® GrowthVenture™:

For entrepreneurs who currently own companies and are looking for proven strategies and processes for healthy growth.

- ▶ Review and evaluate important aspects of your existing business.
- ▶ Explore next stage growth, future opportunities and exit strategies.
- ▶ Reshape your business for long-term profitability and improved performance.

"This program helped me develop the strategy and direction of my company. It took me through the critical pillars of business planning and management, and helped us craft a presentation to investors." - John M., FastTrac Graduate
